

Her Benny by Silas K Hocking

This book is a little gem. It was first published in 1880 by a Cornish Minister who upped sticks to bang his drum up in the grim North, (including 3 years in Liverpool, which is where this story is primarily set). Despite the good man of the cloth earning only a fraction of what he should have done, this book gave Silas K Hocking his place in History, as the first author to sell more than a million books in his own life time. Considering the traditional rush from the cemetery to buy all sorts of works of art, music and literature by even the most obscure writers/artists in the event of their passing on, this was indeed an achievement. One read of the first chapter will make you understand why.

We are committed to supporting your family during their grief, recognizing that grief is personal to each individual. We acknowledge we cannot make the pain go away, but through our efforts, we can make the grief journey less lonely and perhaps.. a little easier. Excellence We will strive to create the most personal and meaningful tribute to the person who died and support any appropriate requests to commemorate the life that was lived. Attention To Details Whether the service is in our chapel, your church, home or at the graveside - we offer ideas and options to make each service unique. Value We believe you should be able to pay your respects without paying your life's savings, that's why we offer our Fair Price Guarantee. Dignity No matter what type of service you choose, your loved one will be cared for with the same dignity and compassion that we would extend to our own family. Compassion We, too, are walking the journey of grief in our own family. So we understand, in ways that only someone who has gone through a great loss, could possibly know.
