

The Homecoming: A Sam McGowan Adventure

Amelia Earhart is lost but apparently alive somewhere in the Pacific, and Elinor Jones, the friend who promised to protect her on her round-the-world flight, is wandering a mangrove swamp in India. At home, the company Miss Jones recently inherited has already fallen into the wrong hands, and J. Edgar Hoover wants to arrest her for treason. Meanwhile, that old book, In Quest of Phi, her whole reason for being, is somewhere in North Africa: on the wrong side of a big war. Her best friend, airplane mechanic Ernie Tisor, is just a phone call away. If only she could find a phone. So, Miss Jones, how will you squirm out of this one? This Sam McGowan Adventure, sequel to The Messenger, follows aviatrix extraordinaire Elinor Jones as she tries to make good on all the promises she's made: to protect and preserve that infernal Users Guide to Planet Earth one more time. And perhaps to return it once and for all to its safe haven. Many people, for numerous reasons, don't want this to happen. In Quest of Phi: the Search for Creative Meaning poses too great a threat. [In Quest of Phi: the Search for Creative Meaning should be in Old English Text MC if possible. Thanks!]
