

My He To Love: Spirit of Sappho, Illustrations by Liana Buszka

This is my second poetry book. This book is about the spirit of Sappho torn between two lovers. It has a story line about how Sappho meets one of her lovers. It gives you an inside look of her emotional stages. Sappho was born around 630 BC. Sappho was under appreciated after she left this earth. Most of Sapphos poetry was destroyed. Plato referred to Sappho as the Tenth Muse. I encourage everyone to try to get to know Sappho. Go on the internet and read about her story. She was a Greek Goddess that created unbelievable beauty, but most of all, she had an inner beauty and love for mother earth. She loved to write poems about her lovers, earth, and her life.

Many men and women will walk away fascinated about her and her lifestyle. Many men and women will go on forever fascinated by Sapphos rare beauty. This book will also let you get to know some of my friends and family. I even mention their full names. I am wondering what Sappho will tell me next!

We are committed to supporting your family during their grief, recognizing that grief is personal to each individual. We acknowledge we cannot make the pain go away, but through our efforts, we can make the grief journey less lonely and perhaps.. a little easier. Excellence We will strive to create the most personal and meaningful tribute to the person who died and support any appropriate requests to commemorate the life that was lived. Attention To Details Whether the service is in our chapel, your church, home or at the graveside - we offer ideas and options to make each service unique. Value We believe you should be able to pay your respects without paying your life's savings, that's why we offer our Fair Price Guarantee. Dignity No matter what type of service you choose, your loved one will be cared for with the same dignity and compassion that we would extend to our own family. Compassion We, too, are walking the journey of grief in our own family. So we understand, in ways that only someone who has gone through a great loss, could possibly know.
