The 18th century was a wealth of knowledge, exploration and rapidly growing technology and expanding record-keeping made possible by advances in the printing press. In its determination to preserve the century of revolution, Gale initiated a revolution of its own: digitization of epic proportions to preserve these invaluable works in the largest archive of its kind. Now for the first time these high-quality digital copies of original 18th century manuscripts are available in print, making them highly accessible to libraries, undergraduate students, and independent scholars. The Age of Enlightenment profoundly enriched religious and philosophical understanding and continues to influence present-day thinking. Works collected here include masterpieces by David Hume, Immanuel Kant, and Jean-Jacques Rousseau, as well as religious sermons and moral debates on the issues of the day, such as the slave trade. The Age of Reason saw conflict between Protestantism and Catholicism transformed into one between faith and logic -- a debate that continues in the twenty-first century.++++The below data was compiled from various identification fields in the bibliographic record of this title. We are committed to supporting your family during their grief, recognizing that grief is personal to each individual. We acknowledge we cannot make the pain go away, but through our efforts, we can make the grief journey less lonely and perhaps.. a little easier. Excellence We will strive to create the most personal and meaningful tribute to the person who died and support any appropriate requests to commemorate the life that was lived. Attention To Details Whether the service is in our chapel, your church, home or at the graveside - we offer ideas and options to make each service unique. Value We believe you should be able to pay your respects without paying your life's savings, that's why we offer our Fair Price Guarantee. Dignity No matter what type of service you choose, your loved one will be cared for with the same dignity and compassion that we would extend to our own family. Compassion We, too, are walking the journey of grief in our own family. So we understand, in ways that only someone who has gone through a great loss, could possibly know.
