The long boat of the Marjorie W. was floating down the broad Ugambi with ebb tide and current. Her crew were lazily enjoying this respite from the arduous labor of rowing up stream. Three miles below them lay the Marjorie W. herself, quite ready to sail so soon as they should have clambered aboard and swung the long boat to its davits. Presently the attention of every man was drawn from his dreaming or his gossiping to the northern bank of the river. There, screaming at them in a cracked falsetto and with skinny arms outstretched, stood a strange apparition of a man. Wot the ell? ejaculated one of the crew. A white man! muttered the mate, and then: Man the oars, boys, and well just pull over an see what he wants.

We are committed to supporting your family during their grief, recognizing that grief is personal to each individual. We acknowledge we cannot make the pain go away, but through our efforts, we can make the grief journey less lonely and perhaps.. a little easier. Excellence We will strive to create the most personal and meaningful tribute to the person who died and support any appropriate requests to commemorate the life that was lived. Attention To Details Whether the service is in our chapel, your church, home or at the graveside - we offer ideas and options to make each service unique. Value We believe you should be able to pay your respects without paying your life's savings, that's why we offer our Fair Price Guarantee. Dignity No matter what type of service you choose, your loved one will be cared for with the same dignity and compassion that we would extend to our own family. Compassion We, too, are walking the journey of grief in our own family. So we understand, in ways that only someone who has gone through a great loss, could possibly know.
