

Not That Bruce Willis!: A Story of Redemption

Bruce is only just beginning to whisper small prayers to God again. After his mother passes away, he returns home to his familys ranch in the Texas panhandle to begin an emotional journey to reevaluate what is important in his life, recover from his addictions, and heal his broken heart. But he has no idea he is also about to begin a fight for his very survival. Bruce has become quite good at detecting posers. When three men appear at his door one day seeking his father, he soon realizes he is facing enemies. Bruces father, the local feedlot owner, has not stayed at the ranch for more than five days since his wife died, but it is soon evident these men want him dead and think Bruce is just the man to carry out their evil plan. But Bruce is not going down without a fight. Somehow he needs to summon the courage from deep within to outsmart the culprits who are intent on seeking revenge. As Bruce suddenly finds himself caught in a dangerous and violent web of deceit, he must decide whom he can trust-before it is too late.
